

110 WEST TEXAS STREET • MARFA, TEXAS 79843

The Grande Dame of Marfa, this gracious turn of the century home boasts five fireplaces and a beautiful wrap around front porch. With two turrets and red roof, this unique home is a testament to the local Spanish adobe architecture combined with Victorian elegance creating a completely unique home (and possibly the only Victorian adobe home in existence). Surrounded by a private wall, yet right next door to the Hotel Paisano in the heart of Marfa, it is the perfect combination of privacy and activity. Whether you are staying in the main house or the casita, enjoy the beautiful grounds with a beverage on the porch or just relax outside with friends and family.
